Index

L'index fait exclusivement référence au texte des articles, non aux notes. Ne figurent que les noms propres (personnages, tribus et dynasties, lieux et monuments, écoles et ordres religieux). Les noms les plus fréquents, notamment « Timourides » et « Asie centrale » ont été volontairement omis. Seuls les auteurs anciens apparaissent à l'exclusion des savants contemporains. Pour alléger et simplifier, les mots pour lesquels la graphie usuelle est de rigueur apparaissent orthographiés « à la française » (même pour les références aux textes en anglais), par exemple : Ouzbeks et non Uzbeks, Gengis Khan et non Chingiz Khan, etc. Le nom du fondateur de l'illustre dynastie apparaît sous la forme de « Timour ».
